In GALISSA, about fifteen minutes away from the coast, you will find a truly beautiful and picturesque chapel built among the rocks. Its history is even more interesting as behind it lies a fisherman and a vow. It is a small and white chapel that did not need to be built with a floor and ceiling. It is literally inside the rock and once you arrive you will only see two walls on the right and left. Anyone who wishes can walk there and see it up close!!! In the evening we will visit (Optional walk) Kini (individual expenses) for a romantic walk on the sea and cocktails in one of the bars. Overnight stay. .
