

Korfos-The Baths of Beautiful Helen

Excursion program

We depart at 07:00 in the morning from Chalkida where, with an intermediate stop for the necessary coffee, we will continue our journey reaching the beautiful Korfos, a village with an island feel, unexplored by many, located on the coastal front of Corinth facing the Saronic Gulf and was a vacation spot for well-known politicians. Here we will visit the old Catholicon of Panagia of Steiri - a Byzantine monument built in the 11th century, which is related to the presence of Saint Luke of Steiriot in Corinth, we will also encounter the bay of Selonda, where "Papanikolis", the most legendary Greek submarine of those that operated during World War II, took refuge. We will have free time then we will head to the Baths of Beautiful Helen. The Baths of Beautiful Helen, is a seaside settlement of the Corinthian law, is a destination worth visiting for the picturesqueness of their landscape, the beaches with blue-green waters, but above all their healing properties. We will have free time to eat and enjoy our bath and then in the afternoon we will take the road back to Chalkida.
