

Poros-Galata

Excursion program

We depart at 05:30 in the morning from Chalkida where, with our necessary stop for coffee, we will reach Galata where we will take the boat to Poros. The city and port of the island exudes a neoclassical charm. It is built amphitheatrically, adorned with beautiful neoclassical buildings and old neighborhoods, which take you back to more peaceful and carefree times. The Metropolitan Church of Agios Georgios is located in Sferia and stands out for its impressive frescoes by Konstantinos Parthenis. We will have plenty of free time to wander through the alleys of the city with its beautiful neoclassical houses, climb the historic clock, swim in the blue waters and enjoy our meal in a traditional tavern. Optionally, anyone who wishes can go around the island by submarine (personal expenses). Then in the afternoon we will return by boat to Galata where we will take the return trip to Chalkida with summer images and memories.
